Parent Teacher Conference Week

Parent Teacher Conference Week is Monday, October 21st through Friday, October 25th.

Parent Conferences create a positive and supportive relationship between you, your child's teacher, and your child. This relationship is extremely important: as you understand the teacher's expectations of your child, you will be better aware of what it is that you can do to support your child in his/her pursuit of academic excellence.

Your child's teacher will send a conference date and time notification in a letter, or online through Parent Square. Please let the teacher know if a translator is needed at your appointment.

Each conference appointment is 20 minutes. Your effort to be on time and stay within the twenty minutes is appreciated. Dismissal time during this week is 1:30p.m.

If you have not received a notice prior to October 21st, please contact your child's teacher.

An early release bus schedule is included the Beacon newsletter.

Quote of the Month

"Listen! The wind is rising, and the air is wild with leaves, we have had our summer evenings, now for October eves!"

Humbert Wolfe

Principal's Letter

October 1, 2024

Dear Arena Families:

Autumn has come and the days are noticeably shorter. I am constantly reminded how quickly this year is moving along as parent conference week is coming up October 21st - 25th. Please look for a conference schedule from your child's teacher or contact them directly for a time that works for you. It is important for parents to have the opportunity to speak directly with their child's teachers about social emotional concerns, student confidence level, cognitive skills such as literacy, writing and Math, language skills and most importantly to set academic goals for students. Parents know their children best and your input, concerns and interest in your child's experience is very important to the teaching staff here at Arena Elementary. It is also important to remember that during conference week, students will be released at 1:30 ALL WEEK.

To support that academic growth and progress, it is important to encourage your child/children to read, read, read. Research has shown that early exposure to language is the greatest factor in becoming proficient readers. By reading with your child, you strengthen their cognitive and literacy skills. Cognitive skills include processing information, memory, and reasoning just to name a few. Reading is a fundamental skill that helps us find and share information. It is a crucial life skill. It opens the door to discovery, to educate oneself about the things that are interesting, inspirational or necessary. Most importantly, reading is fun and an excellent way to develop the imagination and curiosity of a young, growing mind.

Let's celebrate learning by reading fun and exciting books with our children. Family engagement is key to student success. Let's work as a team to build student confidence and improve the educational experience.

Have a great month.

Parent-Teacher Conference Tips for Parents/Guardians

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT- Building a relationship with your child's teacher opens to communication. Keep in touch.

BE MINDFUL OF TIME- Your conference time with the teacher is limited so make it productive and matter. Stay within the allotted time. More than likely the meetings are back to back with many more parents who will need the teacher's time too.

BE PREPARED- Bring a notebook and pen to write down any important information you receive during the conference.

BRING QUESTIONS- It helps to write your thoughts down so you make sure you get to everything you'd like to cover in the limited time. Prioritize what is on top of your list to address with the teacher.

Some questions to consider:

- What are my child's academic strengths and talents?
- Is my child working to their ability?
- How much time should my child spend on homework?
- What can we do to improve areas where my child is struggling?
- What can I do at home to support my child?

Scholastic Book Fair

October 21-October 25

This year's annual Scholastic Book Fair begins on Monday, October 21st through Friday, October 25th. This is the same week as our Parent Teacher Conferences. What a wonderful opportunity students, parents, and community members to shop outside school hours.

The book fair in our library will be open during these days and times:

- Closed before school. Sorry!
- During school at recess and lunch. Just a side note-visiting the fair at these times does not excuse being late to class! Plan ahead.
- Monday through Friday from 8:00a.m. to 3:30p.m.

How to pay for items at the book fair? We accept the following payment at the fair; eWallet, cash, credit cards and checks payable to Arena Elementary School.

Arena Book Fair Homepage link: <https://www.scholastic.com/bf/arenaelementaryschool>

Through the homepage you may access the following:

- Sign up for exclusive offers from Scholastic
- Preview books from the fair, get a sneak peek, and explore digital flyers!
- Shop the online book fair October 21 through November 3rd
- Set up eWallet account- a safe cash-free way for your child to shop the Fair

What is eWallet?

No more bills stuffed in backpacks! At the Scholastic Book Fair, kids shop without cash thanks to eWallet, a digital payment account for purchases at the Fair. Family and friends contribute funds. Then kids choose their own books. It's convenient, simple, and secure.

How does it work?

It starts on your school's Book Fair homepage. A child's family follows a link to create a free eWallet account. There are three ways to fund an account: Add money with a credit card, use funds from a previous eWallet, or invite friends and extended fam to contribute.

Because funds are available immediately, a child can shop the Fair with eWallet right away. Families can use a leftover balance to fund an eWallet for a future Fair.

Annual Costume Parade October 31st

Our annual campus parade is set for Thursday, October 31st. The parade will begin at 9:35am for the pre-school and for grades K-5. The procession will walk from the primary playground through the classroom breezeways, to and through the School District office and back to the primary playground.

Students may come to school in costume on this day, provided they follow these rules:

- Students are expected to wear safe costumes.
- Students must arrive at school in complete costume/attire: no changing, putting on make-up, or prepping etc., will be allowed during school hours.
- Costumes shall not include weaponry or accessories (wands, swords, brooms, or other hand held items)
- Costumes shall not be gory or "bloody."
- Students shall abide by the district dress and grooming policy and wear appropriate shoes and clothing.
- The only face mask acceptable is a regulated face mask covering the nose and mouth.
- Dress for the appropriate weather, as it is a full school day.

Trunk or Treat Festivities

October 31st
4:30-6:00p.m.

You are cordially invited to attend Arena Staff's First Annual Trunk or Treat Event on Thursday, October 31 from 4:30 to 6:00p.m. The event will be held on the Main Yard Blacktop.

What is a Trunk or Treat? A central location where vehicles park, pop open their decorated trunks or truck beds, and where trick-or-treaters can come and score some good loot!

This is a safe and friendly way to interact with our school staff, our families, and community.

If it's a Rainy Day? The trunk or treat event will move to the multipurpose room with decorated tables.

October is National Bullying Prevention Month Bullying and Conflict-What's the Difference?

We need to clearly identify the difference between conflict and bullying, in order to appropriately respond to bullying incidents. While the two seem similar in some instances, there is actually a distinct difference. Conflict is equal power and Bullying equals an imbalance of power.

Characteristics of Peer Conflict

There are a number of ways to identify conflict. First, when a conflict occurs, both people involved have equal power in the relationship. And while both people may be emotional and upset neither one is seeking control or attention. They also are respectful to one another even though they disagree.

Also, when people experience conflict, they often feel remorse and take responsibility for their actions. They want to solve the problem so that they can start having fun again. They are intent on finding some type of agreement so that the relationship feels restored again. Lastly, conflict happens occasionally and is usually not serious or emotionally damaging to either person. While experiencing conflict is never fun for either party, it does not make a person feel bad about who they are.

Characteristics of Bullying

The best way to identify bullying is to recognize that it is a deliberate act. The goal is to hurt, insult or threaten another person. There is also an imbalance of power in the situation. Bullies exert control over other people, either by intimidating them, harassing them, threatening them or humiliating them. It can range from hitting, shoving, name-calling, threats, and mocking to extorting money and possessions. Some kids bully by shunning others and spreading rumors about them. Others use social media or electronic messaging to taunt others or hurt their feelings.

Bullying also is repeated and purposeful. In other words, it is ongoing. While the tactics may vary from incident to incident, the bully is targeting the same people over and over with the purpose of hurting them in some way. Bullying also poses a threat of serious emotional or physical harm.

Typically, a bully feels very little remorse and the target is usually visibly upset. Additionally, bullies may get satisfaction from hurting people. And there is no attempt to resolve anything. Bullies are not interested in having a relationship with the intended target. However, remember that not every hurtful action is bullying. Sometimes it is simply unkind behavior. So be sure you are aware of what constitutes bullying.

Differences in Addressing Conflict and Bullying

Conflict is an important part of growing up but bullying is not. Conflict teaches kids how to give and take. They also learn how to come to an agreement and how to solve problems. But bullying only wounds kids.

When it comes to conflict, it is good for kids to learn conflict resolution skills. These skills promote listening and working together. Both parties come to an agreement. But conflict resolution is not appropriate for bullying situations. In fact, it can be very dangerous to victims of the bullying.

Conflict resolution works based on the assumption that both people are responsible for the current problem and need to work it out. In this situation, both kids make compromises and the conflict is resolved. Usually, when kids have a conflict, it is best to allow them the opportunity to work it out on their own.

But bullying is different. It is about the bully making a choice to intentionally hurt, harm or humiliate another person. There is nothing to work out. What's more, bullies usually do not negotiate with others. They want power and they blame others for their actions. Even if an adult can get them to apologize, bullies will often retaliate when no one else is around. As a result, it is crucial to recognize the difference between conflict and bullying.

Remember, the bully is fully responsible for the situation. He also bears all the responsibility for change. Forcing a target to participate in conflict resolution or mediation is never a good idea. Instead, an intervention process should be developed that ensures the safety of the student being bullied.

Meanwhile, the bully should be disciplined. Bullies need to experience consequences for their behavior. They also need to be told that their choices are unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Likewise, victims of bullying need to be reassured that they did not cause the bullying and that they are not to blame. Parents, teachers, school administrators, and counselors should work together to help them overcome the negative impact of bullying. The goal is for them to regain sense of safety and self-esteem.

What Parents can do:

- If your child tells you about being bullied, listen calmly and offer comfort and support. Praise your child for doing the right thing by talking to you about it. Emphasize that it's the bully who is behaving badly — not your child. Reassure your child that you will figure out what to do about it together.
- Take it seriously if you hear that the bullying will get worse if the bully finds out that your child told or if threats of physical harm are involved.
- Let someone at school (the principal, school nurse, or a counselor or teacher) know about the situation. They are often in a position to monitor and take steps to prevent further problems and will help determine the best course of action.
- Restore confidence. Provide a listen ear about difficult situations, but encourage kids to also tell you about the good parts of their day. Make sure they know you believe in them and that you'll do what you can to address any bullying that occurs.

What kids can do:

- Avoid the bully and use the buddy system.
- Hold the anger. It's natural to get upset by the bully, but that's what bullies thrive on. It makes them feel more powerful.
- Act brave, walk away, and ignore the bully. Firmly and clearly tell the bully to stop, then walk away.
- Tell an adult. Teachers, principals, parents, and school personnel can all help stop bullying.
- Talk about it. Talk to someone you trust, such as a counselor, teacher, sibling, or friend. They may offer some helpful suggestions, and even if they can't fix the situation, it may help you feel a little less alone.

Board Policy Manual Point Arena Schools

Policy 5132: Dress And Grooming

Status: ADOPTED

Original Adopted Date: 10/01/1996 | Last Revised Date: 06/23/2021 | Last Reviewed Date: 06/23/2021

The Governing Board believes that appropriate dress and grooming contribute to a productive learning environment. The Board expects students to wear clothing that is suitable for the school activities in which they participate. Students shall not wear clothing that presents a health or safety hazard or causes a substantial disruption to the educational program.

District and school rules pertaining to student attire shall be included in student handbooks, may be posted in school offices and classrooms, and may be periodically reviewed with all students as necessary.

Students shall not be prohibited from dressing in a manner consistent with their gender identity or gender expression or with their religious or cultural observance.

In addition, the dress code shall not discriminate against students based on hair texture and protective hairstyles, including, but not limited to, braids, locks, and twists. (Education Code 212.1)

The principal or designee is authorized to enforce this policy and shall inform any student who does not reasonably conform to the dress code. The dress code shall not be enforced in a manner that discriminates against a particular viewpoint or results in a disproportionate application of the dress code based on students' gender, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, household income, or body type or size.

School administrators, teachers, and other staff shall be notified of appropriate and equitable enforcement of the dress code.

When practical, students shall not be directed to correct a dress code violation during instructional time or in front of other students.

Repeated violations or refusal to comply with the district's dress code may result in disciplinary action.

Gang-Related Apparel

The principal, staff, and parents/guardians at a school may establish a reasonable dress code that prohibits students from wearing gang-related apparel when there is evidence of a gang presence that disrupts or threatens to disrupt the school's activities. Such a proposed dress code shall be presented to the Board, which shall approve the plan upon determining that it is necessary to protect the health and safety of the school environment. The dress code policy may be included in the school's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 35183)

When determining specific items of clothing that may be defined as gang apparel, the school shall ensure that the determination is free from bias based on race, ethnicity, national origin, immigration status, or other protected characteristics.

Uniforms

The Board may approve a school-initiated dress code requiring students at the school to wear a school uniform whenever the Board determines that such a dress code will promote student achievement, a positive school climate, and/or student safety.

The Superintendent or designee shall establish procedures whereby parents/guardians may choose to have their children exempted from the school uniform policy. Students shall not be penalized academically, otherwise discriminated against, or denied attendance to school if their parents/guardians so decide. (Education Code 35183)

The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that resources are identified to assist economically disadvantaged students in obtaining uniforms. (Education Code 35183)

Regulation 5132: Dress And Grooming

Status: ADOPTED

Original Adopted Date: 10/01/1996 | Last Revised Date: 06/23/2021 | Last Reviewed Date: 06/23/2021

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

1. Clothing, jewelry, and personal items shall be free of writing, pictures, or any other insignia which is vulgar, lewd, obscene, profane, or sexually suggestive or which promotes the use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or other illegal activity.
2. Appropriate shoes must be worn at all times.
3. Hats, caps, and other head coverings shall not be worn indoors.
4. Clothes shall be sufficient to conceal undergarments. See-through tops and bare abdomens are prohibited.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed at least once each semester and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

Uniforms

In schools that require a schoolwide uniform, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians of the school shall jointly select the specific uniform to be worn. (Education Code 35183)

At least six months before a school uniform policy is implemented, the principal or designee shall notify parents/guardians of this policy. (Education Code 35183)

Parents/guardians shall also be informed of their right to have their child exempted.

The Superintendent or designee shall establish criteria for determining student eligibility for financial assistance when purchasing uniforms.

Students who participate in a nationally recognized youth organization shall be allowed to wear organization uniforms on days when the organization has a scheduled meeting. (Education Code 35183)
