

Professional Development

---

Our 2016-17 Master schedule includes four professional development days

Arena Elementary School teachers have three staff development days before the start of school in the Fall plus an additional day in November. This enables the staff to be well prepared for the students when they return.

Every Wednesday we have early release days that allow us to explore educational opportunities and discuss and reflect on teaching practices and objectives. Our teachers share methodology and often collaborate on projects.

